Facilitator: Sunita Mutha, Director, Healthforce Center at UCSF

The Council will engage in a discussion regarding how to increase the supply of primary care GME slots and physician workforce diversity.

We have a unique moment in front of us – a health workforce crisis and significantly increased funding. The Council will discuss innovative ideas to address this unique moment that would:

- Expand capacity to train primary care and psychiatry physicians over the next one to three years.
- Increase workforce diversity and equity over the next one to three years.
- Increase access to services in medically underserved areas over the next one to three years.
