

2022 California Electrical Code

Wednesday, March 22, 2023

9:00 – 10:30 a.m., Pacific Time

As of January 1, 2023, all applications for projects submitted to HCAI will be checked for conformance with the 2022 California Electrical Code (CEC) Part 3, Title 24, California Code of Regulations which is based on the 2020 National Electrical Code (NEC). Join HCAI as we review the most significant changes made in this code cycle and we will explain how this will affect the electrical design for new healthcare projects. Participants will gain knowledge on how to apply these changes to their projects.
