

The HPD program is a comprehensive source for data on health care claims and encounters throughout the state. Applications are now open for stakeholders interested in accessing HPD data.

AVAILABLE DATASETS

Researchers and other qualified applicants can request non-public HPD data access via the secure data enclave or direct transmission.

KEY INFORMATION TO APPLICANTS

Application process

- > Register on the HCAI's Data Request Portal and submit a detailed application.

Security and Privacy Requirements

- > All data access is subject to strict privacy protections. Applicants must demonstrate compliance with data security standards.
- > If an applicant is requesting to receive data via direct transmission, there are additional security and privacy requirements.

Fees

- > $100 non-refundable application fee and dataset access fees based on the type of data access requested. The application fee must be received before HCAI will begin processing the application. The dataset access fee must be received before access is granted.

HOW TO GET STARTED

- > Visit the HPD Data Access and Release webpage to learn more about the application process, available datasets, and data security requirements.
